Circle K Cleans Knox Park

As an annual service project, Circle K rids Knox Park of the waste that has collected there due to the thoughtlessness of the residents of Athens, including the college students. This year was no exception. The men worked 3½ hours one Saturday morning; the results are evident.

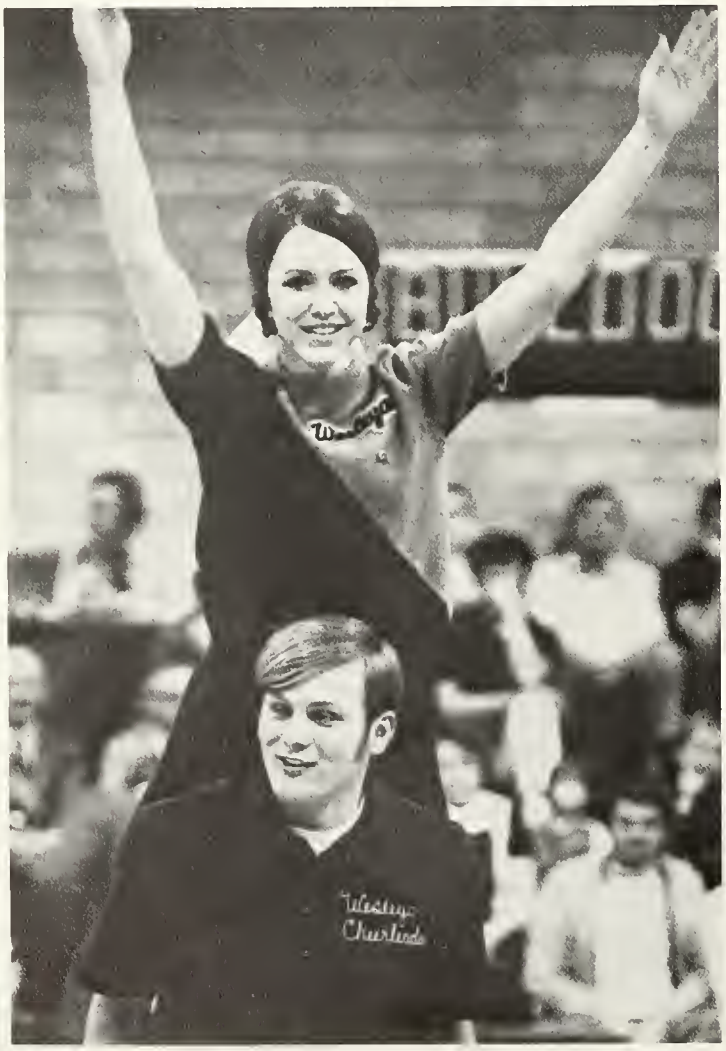
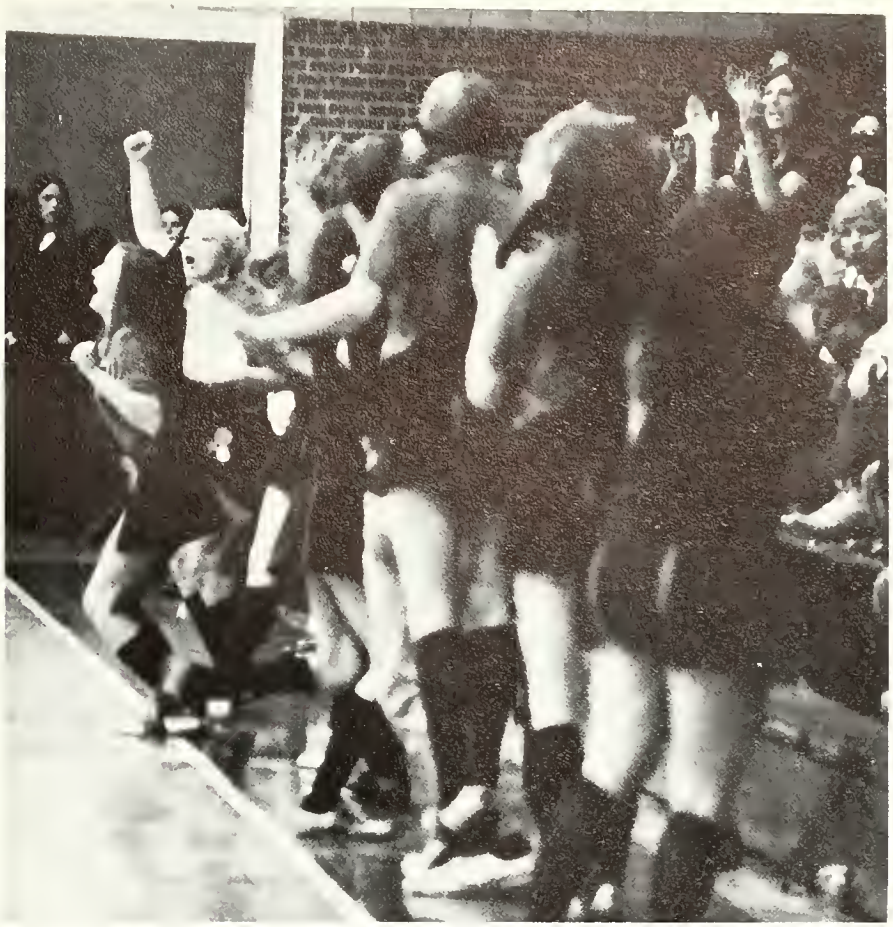
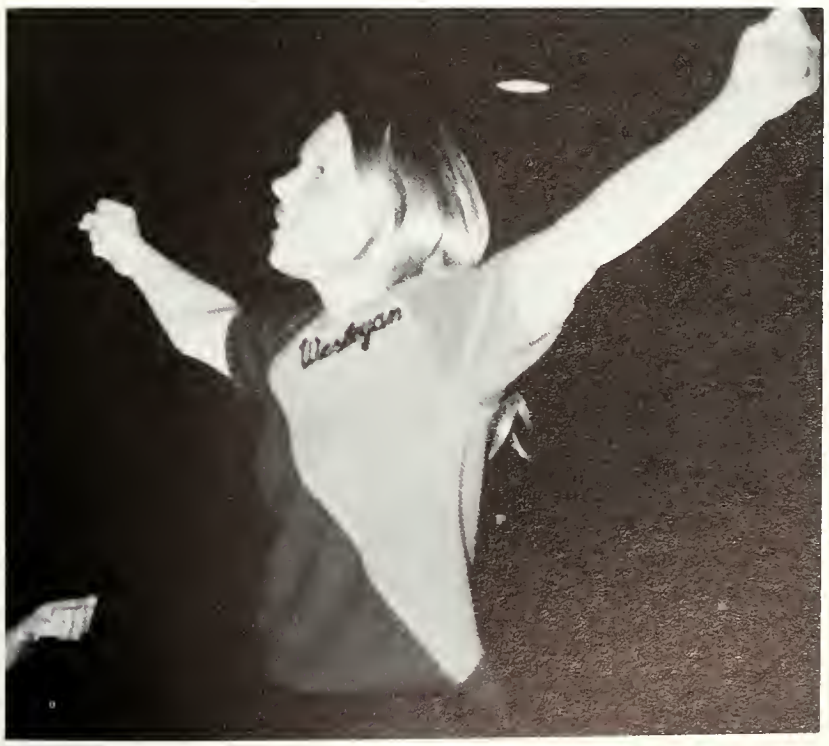
Wesleyan Cheerleaders







Westbyan

Although "The Curious Savage" marked the debut on the Wesleyan stage for most cast members, the play by John Patrick was hailed as a great success. "Savage" was the first presentation of the 71-72 season by the Speech and Theater Department. It presented a thought-provoking theme by contrasting the residents of "The Cloisters" with the insane outside world. The spirit of this play is best exemplified by its most-remembered quote: For as Bryon says, . . .

"And if I laugh at any mortal thing, 'Tis that I may not weep."

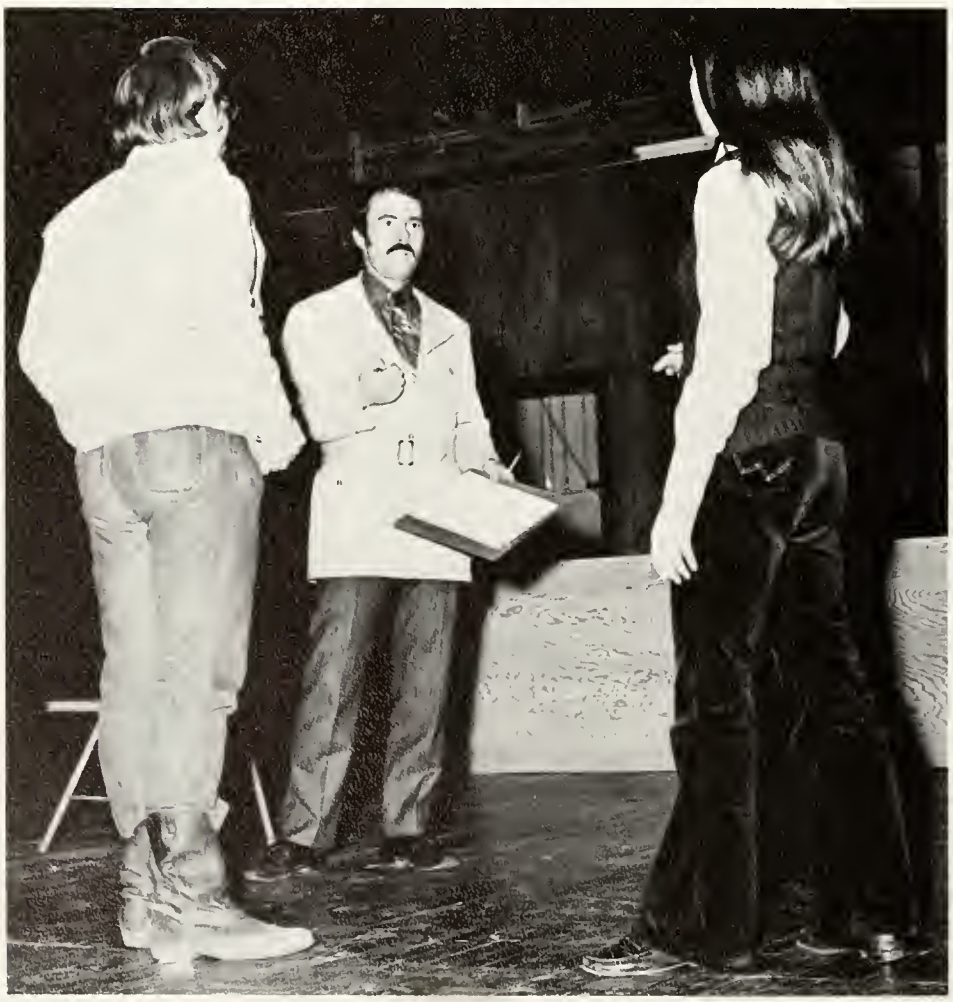
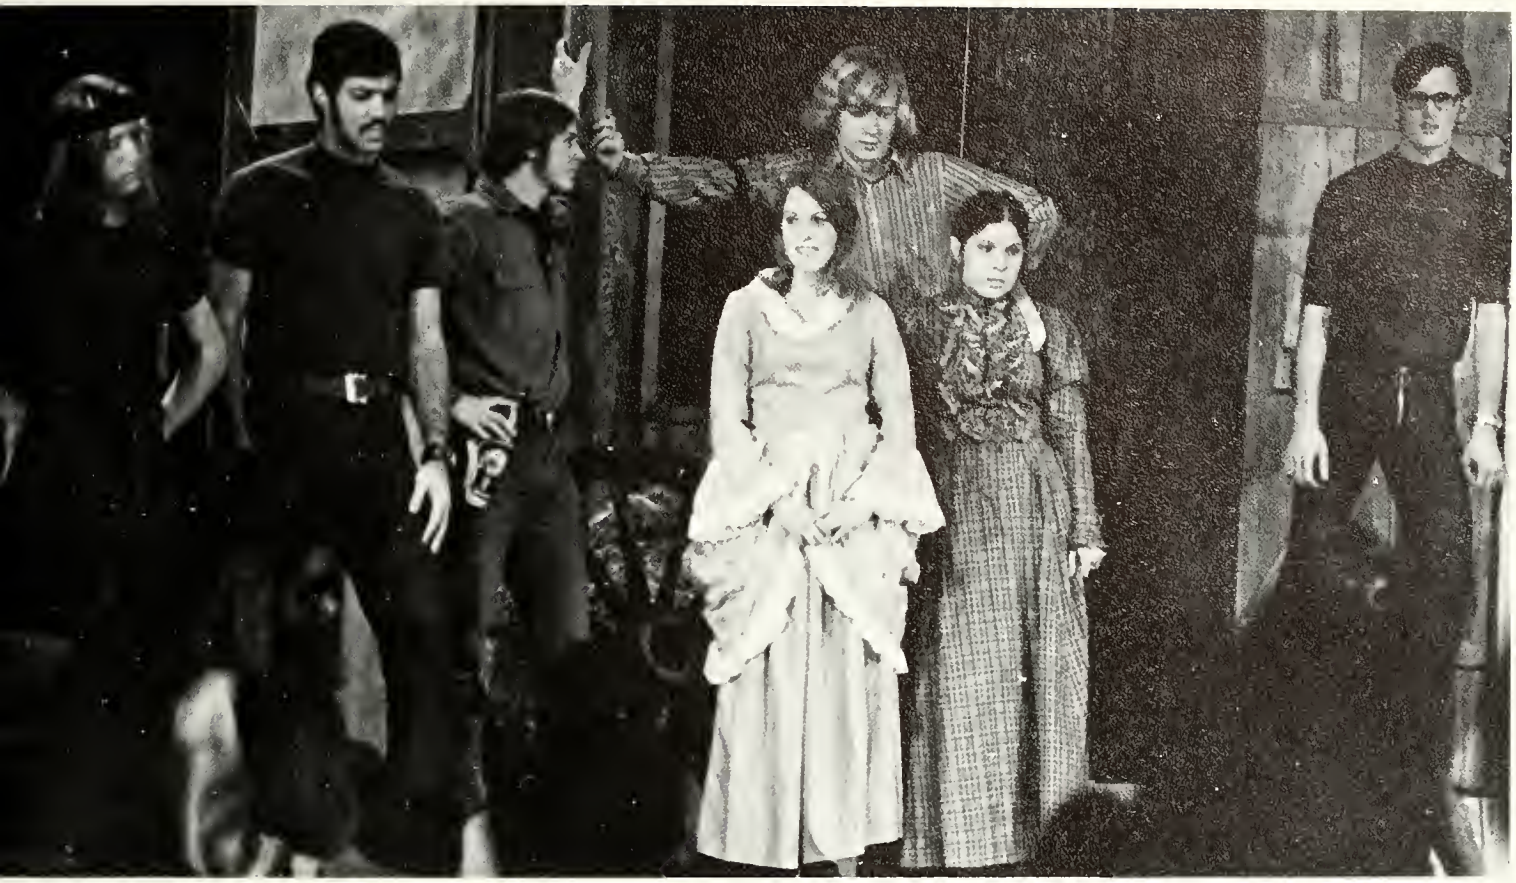
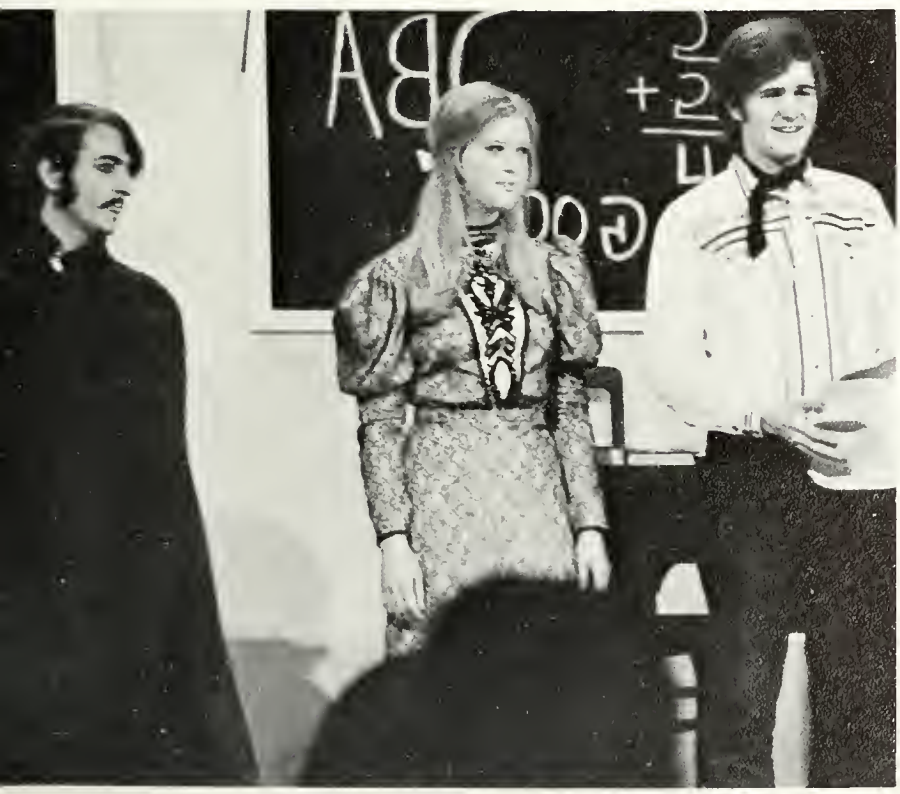
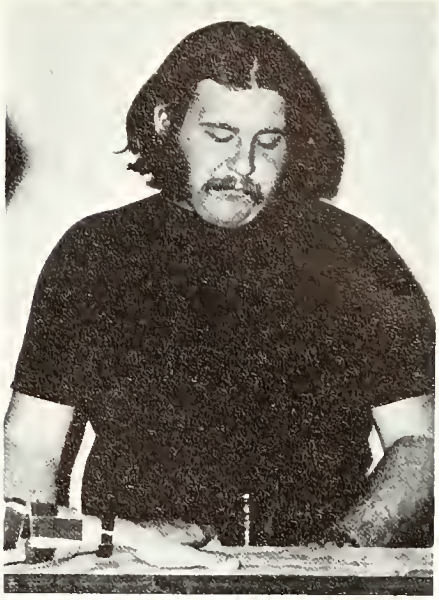
Melodrama Workshop Highlights Interim









Students Visit London

"Fantastic!" was a word frequently used to describe the tour of London and Southern England during the Interim. Five girls and seven boys participated in this exciting, fun-filled learning experience. They spent valuable time during their Christmas vacation reading Shakespeare, Dickens, Thackeray, and Milton so that they could better appreciate London and the surrounding countryside. During the first three weeks of the tour, the students visited famous landmarks and delved into the history of America's mother country. The last week took some to Amsterdam, Holland, others to Dublin, Ireland, and still others to Switzerland. Fond memories are indelibly stamped on the minds of the fortunate twelve. "Do you remember . . . ?"

THE FIVE SENSES

SPRING

Denise Captures Coveted Title

Miss Denise Medved combined the winning elements of poise, beauty, personality, and talent to capture the crown of Miss Wesleyan. The pageant culminated in mid-March after many weeks of practice by the ten contestants and preparations by the Circle K club, which sponsored event. Before an anxious audience in Townsend Auditorium, Denise displayed her expert musicianship with a keyboard presentation of the theme from the Summer of 42. Runners-up were Celeste Whipple and Debby Bible, who also received the Judges' Talent Award. Accompanied by Sam Ware, Debby belted out a familiar rendition of Frankie and Johnny. Effervescent Linda Temple received the Congeniality Award, decided by the contestants themselves.
